

ACADEMIC REQUIREMENT

SFPAL strongly supports academic achievement and success. And strong mind and body are essential components to a healthy lifestyle. All boxing participants must be working toward maintaining a satisfactory academic record.

What is a satisfactory academic record:

- Each participant must maintain a minimum of a 2.0 grade point average (GPA)*. The participant may also not be failing any subject matter.
- Each participant must maintain a satisfactory attendance record. (As established by the SFUSD or their school).

*If a participant enters the program with a GPA below 2.0 or is failing a subject matter, the participant will be placed on Academic Probation. Should an active participant's GPA drop below a 2.0 or is failing a subject matter he/she will be put on Academic Probation.

Academic probation:

Participant will be required to attend academic tutoring to improve academic achievement. SFPAL can assist with locating a tutoring program for participant. In order to continue participating in the SFPAL Boxing program, mandatory attendance to the tutoring program will be enforced and progress tracked.

So that SFPAL can ensure the academic success of its participants, each participant will be required to turn in a copy of their most current report card at the end of each semester/term. The copy of the report card will be kept in a confidential at the SFPAL office.

Please sign and return with registration materials to the SFPAL office.

As a participant in the SFPAL Boxing program I agree to adhere to the Academic Requirement as listed above. I will attend school regularly. I will cooperate and deliver my report card on time. I will make an honest effort to maintain or achieve academic success including working toward or maintaining a minimum of a 2.0 GPA.
